

HOW TO CONNECT USING PUBLIC SPEAKING SKILLS

Practical Matters

MTC Provost Leadership Development Academy

Knowledge is power: you hear it all the time. But, knowledge is not power. It's only potential power. It only becomes power when we apply and use it.

Owning the Room

Being natural in unnatural circumstances.

It comes with permission
... and experience.

Remember: it's just another way to have a conversation.

When does your presentation begin?

The minute your audience first sees you

A group of people are dining at an outdoor restaurant. They are seated at a long table, eating and talking. The setting is a covered patio with string lights and a view of a building in the background. The atmosphere is casual and social.

Being the host of it ...

Help people feel Welcome,
Heard,
Included, Entertained,
Well-fed.

Eye Contact

A close-up photograph of a man's face, focusing on his eyes and facial hair. He has dark hair, a full beard, and a mustache. His eyes are looking directly at the camera with a serious expression. The background is dark, making his face the central focus.

Interruptions.

The Hijacker: Core Message is your north star.
Arguments: you can't win, only resolve or delay..
Bad News: empathy, empathy, empathy.

Emotions

Who's this?

How did he feel the first time he did this trick?

How did he feel the 1000th time?

How did he feel when he'd won Olympic gold?

Practice ... Practice ... Practice.
